Hash Cash: $5 –or- FREE if you bring at least 3 canned food/other non-perishable items for the Food Bank! Trail is not dog friendly unfortunately. Leave Fido at home so he can rest up for some turkey eating.

Ever since the inception of the PITT-H3, the Sand Turkey Trail has been a pre-Thanksgiving staple! We could regale you with the tale of how Sir Vix made the whole thing about mythical Sand Turkeys up but it's a God damn institution at this point! She will gladly tell you all about it some day for the low cost of a beer or a slice of cake. Together again for the first time on a Sand Turkey trail since the First Annual Sand Turkey Trail, Sir Vix and ManG are back with The Black Clap, John Handycock, and Any Cock'll Do to take you on a pre-Holiday adventure you have probably been on before...or at least dreamt about as a kid. Meet up at 6:30 PM for drinks at Goodfellas in Swissvale and then it is on out precisely at 7:00 for a flat, dry, shiggy-free trail and some beers! Trail will be A to A! The kitchen is open until 11:00 PM!

*Redeem your credits for prizes at the service desk!

Trail #121 Review by Shameless Cussy

The night before Thanksgiving started so well. Hashers arrived with food and money for the foodbank. We walked outside to bless our hares not realizing that G would not bestow his favor on us tonight. The hares took off into the night while the pack stood around sharing the many things they were thankful for and warming up together with a song. Then off we went to run the streets of Swissvale in search of our pre-Thanksgiving feast! We found our first beers hidden behind a dumpster in a park. Unfortunately, upon the hares leaving us, the police then found us drinking behind a dumpster in the park. A joyless pastor called the cops with what must have been a terrifying story because they ALL came out with a parade’s worth of cars. Don’t worry friends, the pastor semi-apologized for ruining our fun on some crimestoppers Facebook page. Buuuut he wasn’t too sorry because remember friends: FUN leads to fornication, fornication leads to damnation and all of that leaves a mess in the park where kids play. Being the wonderful humans that we are, we cleaned up our mess thoroughly. We cleaned it up so well that we even put the entire not-empty cooler in the dumpster. Some concerned hashers bolted up what our hares lovingly called Tetanus Hill as soon as the cops came. The rest of the pack approached the police with smiles who in turn approached us with threats of thousand dollar fines. So off we went! The remaining pack strutted their stuff back up the street for the entire police force of Swissvale. Then we wound our way around until we found trail and eventually more beer! Stop 2 was kindly hosted by SirVix and Handycock in their lovely back yard.

We too soon headed out on our last leg barely heeding the hares’ warning of dangers ahead. We ran around and found our way to the dangerous and illegal busway crossing the hares promised. After looking both ways thrice we darted across the road jumped the barrier, flew across the busway and over the tracks into a ditch. We made it through the danger zone only to find death waiting. Many of us were so concerned with the hares’ warning to be cautious that we missed an arrow and crossed too soon. We had to wander the ditch below the tracks to find passage back out. We jogged along without a problem until Bubba Drunk, Gay Horse Dancer, and myself were snared by the ditch monster (or maybe railroad ties that were painted black). Bubba lost the skin of his hands, Gay Horse lost a knee, and I lost a lung. After paying our passage fee to the monster, we eventually struggled our way to safer pastures on the other side of the fence. Eventually the pack made it to circle mostly whole and still happy. Then back we went to the bar for some fine cherry bombs and celebration. Despite fate being against us it was a fun and successful night with $115 cash and 54.5 pounds of food gathered for the NorthSide Food Bank. Shit trail everyone!
